ANAREN MICROWAVE, INC. BOOSTS COMMITMENT TO ASIAN CUSTOMERS – WITH NEW FACILITY IN SUZHOU, CHINA

Syracuse, N.Y., September 20, 2002 – Anaren Microwave (NASDAQ: ANEN), a leader in wireless technology, today announced that it has formally opened an all-new, facility in the Suzhou Industrial Park in Suzhou, China near Shanghai.

Called Anaren Communications Suzhou Company, Ltd., the operation will be staffed by both local talent and personnel relocating from Anaren’s headquarters in East Syracuse, N.Y.

“Our Suzhou plant will service all of our Asian customers across our wireless business units,” said Tim Ross, Anaren’s VP of Business Development. “To start, we’ll be focused on sales, design-engineering, distribution, and light manufacturing.”

Ross indicated the new plant “kills two birds with one stone,” by enabling Anaren to be more responsive to Pacific Rim customers while also helping Anaren lower materials and manufacturing costs company wide.
