L-3 Receives $600 Million Contract to Provide Logistics Support to U.S. Special Operations Command

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 28, 2007--L-3 Communications (NYSE: LLL) announced today that its Integrated Systems (L-3 IS) Group has been awarded a $600 million increase to the ceiling of its previously awarded indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity (ID/IQ) contract. The amended contract, now valued at $2.1 billion, provides services and time-sensitive logistical products to the United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) and its major subordinate commands.

"All Americans are proud of the work being done by our Nation's Special Operations Forces and we are pleased to provide assistance to them," said Michael T. Strianese, President and Chief Executive Officer of L-3 Communications.

"This is a great award for Integrated Systems," added Bob Drewes, President and Chief Operating Officer of L-3 Integrated Systems Group. "This effort typifies L-3's dedication to delivering the highest levels of services to our customers. We will continue to support our military with the utmost in quality, speed and flexibility."

L-3 Integrated Systems (L-3 IS) develops and integrates defense and commercial technology for U.S. and allied customers worldwide. Located in Greenville, Texas, L-3 IS has more than five decades of experience in the development of complex intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance systems; command and control; and secure communications. It is recognized internationally as a systems integration organization specializing in the modernization and maintenance of aircraft of all sizes. It is a leader in advanced technologies for signal processing, electronic countermeasures, sensor development and aircraft self-protection. Systems provided or maintained by L-3 IS help protect military and civilian personnel, bases, assets and national borders throughout the world.

Headquartered in New York City, L-3 Communications employs over 63,000 people worldwide and is a prime system contractor in aircraft modernization and maintenance, C3ISR (Command, Control, Communications, Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance) systems and government services. L-3 is also a leading provider of high technology products, systems and subsystems. The company reported 2006 sales of $12.5 billion.
